

HCG Gallery's Year in Review Show: "NEW YEAR, NEW ART"

WHAT: In honor of its first year, HCG Gallery wants to thank the local and regional artists who have exhibited in their space with a special year in review show, "New Year, New Art."

From January 16 through February 14, 2009, HCG Gallery will present a group show featuring the works of Adriana Carvalho, Danville Chadbourne, Michael Ledoux, David McCullough, Shane Pennington, Penelope Speier, among other talented artists who exhibited at HCG Gallery in the past year. HCG Gallery invites the art public and collectors to see the latest works of the artists who have helped the gallery in its inaugural year.

Shane Pennington
"ANIME", Korschach Series
acrylic on mylar 48" x 48"

Danville Chadbourne
"THE MYTH OF ENDLESS DESIRE"
wood, acrylic and ink on wood, fiber, antler, horn, 44" x 21" x 21"

Michael Ledoux
"FRUIT OF TRACEABLE CAUSE" color, resin on board, 73 x 49"

Penelope Speier
"AMERICAN ROBIN"
acrylic on canvas with persimmon juice, 36" x 36"

WHEN: January 16 – February 14, 2009
Tuesday thru Friday: 10am -6pm
Saturday: 11am-4pm

WHERE: HCG Gallery
1130 Dragon St, Suite 190
(off Howell Street)
Dallas, TX
www.hcggallery.com
214 906-8474

WHO: HCG Gallery, which opened its doors on April 18, 2008, is committed to representing primarily local emerging or mid-career Texas artists. The new Dragon Street space has approximately 3,500 square feet for exhibitions, and movable walls to accommodate different works of art and sculptures of all sizes. HCG Gallery has lighting placed strategically throughout its open floor plan, and high ceilings that create a upscale, downtown lofty look and feel.

CONTACT: Lauren Zanone-Alarcon
Bailey Pete PR-Strauss Marketing
lauren@baileypetepr.com
646.375.2415